

Headteacher message

Thank you to Lotus class for a lovely and informative class assembly this morning telling us all about bullying. We are all much clearer about what it means and what we can do to support each other if we see bullying in our school. Well done Lotus!

A number of children are bringing valuable items into school. Please ensure that your child does not bring expensive items to school as we know it will cause a great deal of distress if items are broken or lost.

Across the school this week, the children have been engaged in assessment tasks, tests or quizzes. The children have shown great resilience during the week and this was the focus for our awards today. Please praise your children for their incredible hard work and perseverance.

If you have not done so already, please book your parent review meeting on the school cloud. We will endeavour to ensure that if you have more than one child, their meetings are close together to avoid long waiting times. Due to class teacher absence, Purple Butterflies will be rescheduled. If you are experiencing any difficulties, please contact the school office.

NEW WIMBLEDON THEATRE

Year 6

This Monday, Year 6 were fortunate enough to go to the Roots and Blues Concert at the New Wimbledon Theatre, celebrating the work of musician Charles Mingus. Children were able to play an active role in the concert as they had learnt the lyrics and made their own percussion instruments for the performance. A great time was had by all and we will be looking forward to taking part in more concerts in the future. Thank you to our music lead, Mr Sutcliffe for organising this wonderful event.

Children in Need

On behalf of the School Council, I would like to say a massive thank you and well done to everybody for opening your hearts and donating so generously to The Christmas Shoe Box Charity. I am genuinely humbled by your generosity.

Bond really is the BEST!

Miss Williams

We dressed up for Children in Need in our Pudsey outfits / in yellow. Thank you everybody for your kind donations and participation. You all looked great!
